Let's All Listen

Songs for Group Work in Settings that Include Students with Learning Difficulties and Autism

Pat Lloyd

Foreword by Adam Ockelford

Nov 2007 144pp ISBN 978 1 84310 583 1 pb and CD £24.99

Let's All Listen contains a collection of songs specifically written or adapted in response to the needs of students with communication problems.

For each of the 46 songs, the book contains sheet music with piano accompaniment and simplified chord sequences for guitar. Sample verses of each song are included on the accompanying audio CD. Pat Lloyd suggests how each song can be used and developed to encourage communication and social interaction, and lists a range of possible objectives for each one. Advocating a flexible approach, she demonstrates how musical activity can be adapted easily and successfully to the specific needs of individual students. Enjoyable and easy to use, this is an ideal resource for specialist and non-specialist music instructors working to improve the communication and social skills of students with learning difficulties, including those with additional autism.

Pat Lloyd is a qualified music therapist and teacher who has worked in the field of special needs for over 25 years, both in special schools and for the NHS. Her roles have ranged from music specialist teacher to Deputy Head. She currently works as an advanced skills teacher and music therapist at Heritage House School in Buckinghamshire, and also as a regional tutor for the University of Birmingham on the Webautism programme.
